General relativity (GR, also known as the general theory of relativity or GTR) is the geometric theory of gravitation published by Albert Einstein in 1915 and the current description of gravitation in modern physics. General relativity generalizes special relativity and Newton's law of universal gravitation, providing a unified description of gravity as a geometric property of space and time ...

I keep hearing the Universe is expanding in comparison to like a balloon inflating, the evidence an apparent red shift observed of matter. We do not observe space red shifting we only observe light/matter interaction red shift, so how from that do you conclude the Universe is expanding when that makes no logical sense or is a any sort of rational thought?

How do we know the Universe is expanding, and expanding

Global warming scientists continue struggling to find an explanation for the nearly 2 decades long global warming pause that has taken hold of the planet since the late 1990s.. The most recent temperature spike was due to the natural El Nino event at the equatorial Pacific, and that has disappeared over the last months.

Global Cooling Expected For 2018 – Warming Projection May

The answer may seem simple, but scientists have no solid definition for what a tree is.

In 1982 CH Bennett made a very interesting connexion between information and energy, noticing that "the essential irreversible step, which prevents [Maxwell's] demon from breaking the second law, is not the making of a measurement [!]" but rather the logically irreversible act of erasing the record ...
